

RULES AND REGULATIONS

General Information:

The Society reserves the right of cancellation at any time for reason satisfactory to it, of all contracts made with the concessionaires. Each concessionaire must confine himself to the space assigned him. Failure to do so will subject him to the forfeiture of his privilege without recourse.

Concessionaires must abide by the laws of State, County and City. Anyone found violating these laws will be closed, forfeiting his concession money and ordered from the grounds. All eating concessions must furnish itself with proper and sanitary equipment that will comply with the rules and regulations of the Health Department. This rule will be strictly enforced. All concessionaires will keep posted in plain view at the front or entrance and also conspicuously displayed inside place of business, a sign showing the price to be charged for meals, lunches or articles of food offered for sale or services performed.

The Society authorizes the letting of only such privileges or concessions as are required to supply the necessary wants of people or that may add to their comfort, convenience or pleasure, but under no circumstances will a privilege of a questionable nature or of a demoralizing tendency to be or in any manner tolerated upon the grounds, or in the buildings, nor will any privilege be permitted where the business is conducted in other than legitimate and trade like manners.

The Society will use every precaution to guard against extortion in any form practiced upon the patrons of the Fair. A violation to this rule by the concessionaire will cause the forfeiture of the contract, money paid, or expulsion from the grounds, as the Society may direct.

The circulation of subscription list or solicitation in any manner, for whatsoever purpose, will not be permitted in any building, or on the grounds other than in regularly authorized concessions, and in these instances only upon the authorization of the Society.

No immoral or lewd exhibition, gambling or games of chance will be allowed on the grounds. This rule will be rigidly enforced by the New York State Police.

Any persons caught entering the grounds during the duration of the Fair by stealth, through or over the fence,
